

2017 LAYMEN'S RETREAT INFORMATION

THINGS TO BRING

- For those sleeping in cabins: your own bedding (pillows, sheets, etc)
- Personal hygiene items: towels, razors, etc.
- For those participating in the organized events: your own gear (.22 Cal weapons – rifles, handguns, shotguns, discs for disc golf, etc.)
- For everyone: A Bible, a pen or pencil, a hearty appetite, a pleasant smile, and a warm handshake.

SPECIAL PROJECT

The Men's Retreat was formed to help support and meet the needs of Camp Fairwood. All offerings taken during the chapel services and money received through the registration of campers (above and beyond our normal operating expenses) will be given directly to the camp. This year the money donated to the camp will be designated toward the construction of a new rifle range which includes a new shelter and extended range distances.

ATTENDANCE AWARD

An attendance award is presented annually to the church with the most number of men over last year's attendance PLUS the number of first-time visitors. Last year's attendance award winner was Calvary Baptist Church, Wisconsin Rapids, WI.

2016 RETREAT RECAP

Keynote Speaker: DR. JAMES TILLOTSON

*President
Faith Baptist Bible College & Seminary*

Jim Tillotson became the president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa in June of 2015.

He previously served for eighteen years as the senior pastor of Meadowlands Baptist Church in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. During that time he led the church in planting three other churches and salvaging another. He also helped to start a Christian school and a small Bible institute.

Jim has earned the Bachelor of Arts (1990) and the Master of Divinity (2002) degrees from Northland Baptist Bible College. In 2016 Bob Jones University conferred on him the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. Jim serves on the U.S. and Canadian councils of Baptist Mid-Missions and on the board of Grand View Camp in Eagar, Arizona.

Jim has a passion for evangelism, church planting and preparing leaders to serve the Lord. Jim and his wife, Joan, have three children: Anne who lives in Edmonton; Tim, a student at FBBC&S; and Beth, a student in high school.

SPECIAL INTEREST

If anyone has any old, antique firearms or weapons of interest, please bring them along for the men to benefit from. A display will be set up in the dining hall for everyone to see them.
